WINTER MEETING

Beat the winter doldrums—Come to our annual meeting at 6:45 on January 6th at our beautiful room at Southgate. AGS member, Melissa Maglio, will share her experiences learning the human head, likeness and working as an artist with law enforcement. Forensics, she says, is a perfect combination of science and art and a wonderful learning tool for any artist.

In addition, we will hear about an interesting new community project for our members. If you missed out in the creation of our last mural, here is another opportunity to grow and have fun collaborating with paint!

ON EXHIBIT

The Shrewsbury Credit Union is currently hosting our Winter/Holiday show. Be sure to go over to get a look before it ends on January 16th. If you have artwork there, please pick it up that day between 9:30—11:00 A.M. Anyone who cannot attend during that time should e-mail Nancy (nancyandjoe54@gmail.com) to make alternate arrangements.

Our NEW SHOW at the Credit Union is sure to tickle everyone! The theme is “Animals and Pets.” We hope you will all have work to include. Please fill out and print your registration form from our website and attach to your painting or do so at Drop Off on January 16th, 9:30—11:00 a.m. All paintings MUST be properly wired.

SALON NIGHT

Another great way to keep ourselves moving this winter! Come on out to discuss “Hot Topics in the Art World.” It will be hosted by Pam Haynes in her lovely antique home at 64 Reservoir Street, Boylston. 6:30 on Thursday evening, January 16. Please RSVP to Pam: 508-869-2570.

LAUGH AT THE MOVIES...

...with Woody Allen and interested artist friends! Our movie this month is “Midnight in Paris”, a romantic comedy fantasy starring Owen Wilson and Rachel McAdams.
