

Next Meeting: January 9, 6:45

Patti Kelly, Monday, January 9th

Patti's presentation will include a short painting demonstration about the method of deconstructing real objects to abstraction.

Happy Holidays to all and Best Wishes for a Happy New Year!

Please consider that facebook postings are limited to AGS members and their art related functions, information and business.

On Tuesday mornings from 9 to 11:30, Elaine and Liz get together to paint at the Shrewsbury Senior Center. They would like to invite other members of the art guild to join in. It's a great place to paint and socialize especially in the cold winter months. It's an informal group, bring your own supplies whatever medium you work in.

Submission of and approval for a grant from the Shrewsbury Cultural Council, ($400) was recently applied for and obtained.

- Linda Lee Johnson will exhibit her most recent and best oil paintings, about 50 works in all, at Briarwood Continuing Care Retirement Community during the month of January. The opening is 2-4 p.m. on Sunday, January 8. The paintings usually involve people interacting--in cities, parks, stores, homes and other locations. She also includes some portraits. The name of the show is Linda Lee Johnson: Characterizations in Oil Briarwood Continuing Care Retirement Community is located at 65 Briarwood Circle, Worcester, MA 01606. Turn on Briarwood Circle from Mountain Street East. There is an exit for it from I-190 at exit 2.

-Suzanne Foxwell is having a display at Cafe Noir in Shrewsbury. Paintings will be there through the end of January, and if anyone would like to stop by and take a look, I am sure Cafe Noir would be delighted to have them. I selected this particular series to show because the colors were nice and warm for the winter. For the most part they are water based oils and acrylic.
