

Next Meeting: November 7, 6:45

"The World is my palette." Ron Rosenstock will talk about his life in photography and show photographs he has made from his many destinations where he has led groups of photographers. His photographs are not about where he is photographing, but WHAT he is photographing. He will show photographs from Iceland, Greenland, Ireland, Italy, Bhutan, New Zealand, Cuba, The Czech Republic, India, Galapagos Islands and Peru.

November Public Welcome Night

November 7: Guests may attend the November meeting for free on a one time only basis.

Supply Table:

December 5:

Dust off those forgotten art supplies. AGS will be featuring an "Art Swap" during our December meeting. Bring in those never used, gently used, meant to use supplies languishing in your basements, studios, garages, and donate them. Tables will be set up at Southgate for papers/pads, pencils, paints, frames (with our without glass), books and any other items you would care to recycle. Here is your opportunity to try something new (pastels, markers, pen and ink.....). One artist's loss is another artist's profit!

Now showing:

At the Shrewsbury Public Library:
