

Newsletter: December, 2015

Art exchange: To those who are participating in the art swap with our partners in Japan, the finished picture from Japan is due by the February meeting. If you did not bring your own unfinished 9x12 picture to November meeting, be sure to bring it in for the December meeting, or contact Bob. Also, if you haven't paid your $5 for the mailing costs, please bring that to the next meeting as well.

Survey: If you haven't completed the guild survey yet please visit the A.G.S. website and complete one. It is beneficial that we hear from everyone. You may email a completed survey to Bob or bring it to December's meeting.

Greeting Cards with your artwork: If anyone has extra art blank art cards to donate to the guild, that would be great. As you know, our secretary, Sue Fleishman sends out cards to guild members that need to know we are thinking of them. Lately there have been one or two cards a month mailed out. Thanks in advance.

Next Meeting:
Monday,
December 7, 6:45

December's meeting is our holiday party. Please bring a piece of artwork to share with the group, and a hot or cold appetizer to share.

Director of Shrewsbury Library, Ellen Dolan, will give a short talk and show slides about the new library and exhibit opportunities for us.

If anyone can think up a new, enjoyable way to conduct the 'Art Share' please let Bob know. A fun game with the artwork would be a nice change.

Now showing:

At the Credit Union: "Farm to Table" fall scenes of farms, orchards, roadside farm stands and Thanksgiving themes

At Saint Vincent Medical Group: Opening Show.

Upcoming:

At the Credit Union: December 3: "Let There be Snow." We hardy New Englanders know what it's like to bundle up, cozy by the fire and get creative. You could enter a still life of winter hats and mittens, show a cat curled up by a fire or maybe snow on the windowsill. Embrace the tallest snowdrifts and show us what the season means to you.

Reminder: There is still time to register for the "Let There be Snow" credit union show by November 30. Drop off is December 3 from 4:00 to 5:00 PM.

The Saint Vincent show art work pick up will be in mid January on a date to be arranged.

Joseph will do everything he can to help by taking pictures ahead of time if possible, during the installation if not done ahead. He would also encourage members to photograph their own work, particularly if it will go under glass. Taking it before framing will avoid the reflection problems. If your photos don't look good, he will edit them in Photoshop. To submit or for questions, email him at: forthill35@verizon.net.
